

Ozark Empire Fair results

Shropshires were the second largest breed shown.

Yearling Ram

1. RoKaJo—Champion
2. J and B Livestock—Reserve Champion
3. Bartholomew
4. Bartholomew
5. Megan Eaves
6. RoKaJo

Fall Ram Lamb

1. RoKaJo
2. Jim Profitt

Spring Ram Lamb

1. Jim Profitt
2. Owen Walker
3. Colby Chastain
4. J and B Livestock
5. RoKaJo
6. Walker
7. RoKaJo

Pair of Ram Lambs

1. RoKaJo
2. Jim Profitt
6. Jim Profitt

Fall Ewe Lambs

1. Owen Walker
2. RoKaJo
3. Profitt

Spring Ewe Lambs

1. Jim Profitt
2. J and B. Livestock
3. RoKaJo
4. Owen Walker
5. J and B. Livestock
6. RoKaJo
7. Colby Chastain
8. J and B Livestock
9. Colby Chastain

Young Flock

1. RoKaJo
2. Owen Walker
3. J and B Livestock
4. Jim Profitt
5. Colby Chastain

Yearling Ewe

1. RoKaJo--Champion
2. Owen Walker—Reserve Champion
3. J and B Livestock
4. Bartholomew
5. J and B Livestock

7. Owen Walker

8. Colby Chastain
9. Bartholomew
10. Jim Profitt
11. Megan Eaves
12. Colby Chastain
13. Jim Profitt

Pair of Yearling Ewes

1. RoKaJo
2. J and B Livestock
3. Owen Walker
4. Bartholomew
5. Colby Chastain

Pair Ewe Lambs

1. RoKaJo
2. Owen Walker
3. J and B Livestock
4. Jim Profitt
5. Colby Chastain

Best Pair

1. RoKaJo
2. J and B Livestock
3. Owen Walker
4. Jim Profitt
5. Bartholomew

Pen of 4

1. RoKaJo
2. Owen Walker
3. J and B Livestock
4. Jim Profitt

Exhibitor's Flock

1. Ro KaJo
2. J and B. Livestock
3. Owen Walker
4. Jim Profitt
5. Colby Chastain.

The quality of animals in this show was outstanding. The 13 yearling ewes were outstanding and anyone could have started a fantastic flock with them. These sheep went on to Missouri State Fair and were very competitive.