

American Shropshire Registry offers Junior Coordinator Position

The Shropshire breed is proving to be very popular with Junior sheep exhibitors and their families. Junior show numbers are continually climbing. The Board of Directors agreed at a recent meeting that the youth programs would benefit from more involved coordination and is offering for the first time a paid position and is allowing $1000 to be paid to someone who could fill the positions needs as described here. Questions should be directed to the ASRA secretary Becky Peterson. Applications are available at www.shropshires.org
